

I am writing to express my opposition to any weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. It is my understanding that the Consumer Bankers Association is challenging the current law. The change requested by the CBA would open the door to many unwanted, unsolicited telephone calls for Indiana residents. The Privacy law in Indiana has worked very well in preventing these types of calls, and it is my strong hope that the law can remain unchanged in its present, consumer-friendly form.